

Parent Information and Emergency Contact

One of the ways the SAGA school works to keep tuition prices reasonable is to enlist the help of parent volunteers. Twenty hours a year are required from our families in the Preschool, Kindergarten and 1st Grade. Currently, families participating in the Afternoon Program are not required to volunteer their time. Parents come from a variety of professional backgrounds that could help meet the needs of The SAGA School. For this reason, it is helpful for the school to have parent data. Enrollment in the SAGA school is not based on parent occupation or background. **This form not required for students previously enrolled.

SAGA School Tuition/Fee Schedule
Enrichment Classes
2011-12

Cost for a 10 week session is $130 or $250 for both classes.

- One Class                      $130
- Two Classes                      $250

* Each child should bring his/her own Soprano recorder. The teacher-recommended models are Yamaha YRS-302B Soprano Recorder (less than $20 at Amazon) or the Yamaha YRS-314B Soprano Recorder (about $30 on Amazon). "When choosing a recorder the most important thing is that it has two holes for the bottom two borings (for baroque fingering). Two piece recorders are good, three piece recorders are even better, as here the lowest part can be adjusted to fit your child's pinky finger - a luxury, not a necessity".

** Children under 5 years of age who attend SAGA on Wednesdays may participate only when a parent is present in the building.

The SAGA School follows the Seattle Public School calendar and can be found at www.sagaschool.org. Students are asked to notify instructor of planned or unplanned absences.
